

History of Casino Slots Online

A casino is a gambling den where a person can go for entertainment, and earn some extra money through gambling. Though gambling is a game of chance, people enjoy them and do not mind losing some hard earned money. In the casinos there are different types of games to choose from. The most common casino games are card poker, roulette and slots. Slots were basically introduced in to the casinos, to provide an outlet to the ladies who accompanied the males, who played at the high bidding tables. Slowly the slot machine gained popularity, as it was simple to operate, and there was high chance of winning. In the present world, casino slots have attained vast popularity. Let us peep into its historical development.

History of Casino Slots

The slot machine was invented in 1891, but it was only in the mid nineties that slot machines were introduced in the casinos. Slot machines were first introduced in to the casinos to entertain the wives, who accompanied their husbands to the casino. The slot game gained popularity and many people started playing the slot machines, as it was easy to operate and there was a surety of winning, even if it was just a small amount. No strategies were required to play the game. A person had to just insert the required number of coins in the slot and pull the lever. The machine would roll and stop after certain number of rotations. The payment was made as per the combination of pictures on the slot display board.

Electronics Development

Electronics development started from the sixties. This brought a great change; the mechanical slot machines were replaced by electronic machines, which was a boon to the owners, as the players could not cheat as easily, as they could do in the mechanical slot machines. The lever was removed. The rolling of the slots was totally dependent on the movement of the coins in the slot. As the coins advanced, the slots kept on moving, and the manipulation by the players was totally eradicated. The video slot machines became popular, as many advanced strategies were introduced in it, which increased its importance, as the players had to use strategies to win the game.

Online Casino Slots

After the introduction of the internet, the video slot machine took its place in the gaming section, and the Online Slots game was introduced. At present, amongst all the online casino games, the online casino slots game is the most sought after. From the eighties, online video slot games have been updated continuously by the gaming companies, to increase the level of interest of the players. Many new themes and graphics have been installed into the slots. The coins have been replaced by chips. New players who want to learn the game without losing any money, can play free online slot games, and after gaining expertise can move on to the games where they can play with real money. Online slot games have become very popular, as the player can play the game sitting at home at his leisure time, and in the process earn some extra money. This is the History of Online Casino Slots.
